Women of Thirties Most DeFaria - Provost Wedding at St. Beautiful, Say Critics

Full Bloom of Loveliness May Be Preserved Far Beyond Middle Life by Care of Health-Tanlac Has Helped Thousands Regain Lost Vitality.

Many famous men have said that no woman is really beautiful until after she is thirty. Her beauty has been flushed and refined by the fires of experience into a fulsomeness with which even the freshness of youth cannot compare.

No. W. W. Benzon.

But thirty is a den.

But thirty is a den-gerous and deceptive age. A woman may grow even more beau-tiful and attractive than ever, or may en-ter into a rapid decline that robs her of the lowing skin, the clear eyes, the charming smile and the grace-fully curving figure that are so essential to the comely and attracthe danger signals and they should be heeded with scrupulous care if one is to preserve in-definitely the full bloom of loveliness. DANGER SIGNS.

Digestive troubles are the chief danger and Tanlac, the celebrated system purifier and body builder, is the chief remedy. If you feel tired out all the time, or your skin is sallow and your lips pale, if your cheeks are thin and colorless, and you suffer from headaches and backache, do not sleep well and wake estion and are afraid to eat eer tain things, it is a sure sign that your digestive organs are not performing their full duty and the system is be-coming clogged with impurities. Tanlac was designed to overcome just
